Subhendu Ghosh holds a PhD. in biophysics and is a professor at the University of Delhi, India. He is actively engaged in research on how we learn patterns, particularly musical patterns such as ragas and talas. As a cultural activist, Dr. Ghosh has taken up culture as one of the critical issues in social change and social justice. He organizes workshops for young people worldwide on culture, raising the question of values, human integrity and social duties. He has performed before live and television audiences all over India, Germany, Austria, Italy, Slovakia, and the United States.
