

The 23rd Edition of the Annual Hispanic and Lusophone Studies Symposium

March 20th-21st, 2020, Columbus, Ohio

Keynote Speakers:

Guillermo Gómez-Peña, La Pocha Nostra
Dr. Cacilda Rêgo, Utah State University

The Graduate Students in the Spanish and Portuguese Department at The Ohio State University invite graduate students, professors, and interested researchers to participate in the 23rd edition of the Annual Hispanic and Lusophone Studies Symposium, which will take place on March 20th-21st, 2020. On this occasion, we invite interested scholars to reflect and engage in a dialogue about any aspect of literatures and cultures in the Luso-Hispanic world. We aim to create a collaborative environment in which we can critically discuss issues and concerns, while establishing a dialogue between time, space, subjects, theories, and practices.

We encourage submissions in the following areas, but other related topics are welcome:

- Afro-Latin American Literatures and Cultures
- Body Studies
- Comparative Studies
- Colonial Studies
- Cultural Heritage
- Decolonial and Postcolonial Studies
- Film Studies
- Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies
- Globalization
- Iberian Studies
- Identity and Border Studies
- Latin American and Latinx Studies
- Literature and Comparative Literature
- Migration and Diaspora Studies
- Musicology
- Performance and Theatre Studies
- Race and Ethnic Studies
- Translation Studies
- Visual Arts

We welcome proposals for traditional papers, as well as other formats, including performance, creative writing, and video essay, among others.

Proposals should be sent using the following link:
