

LOST IN PLAIN SIGHT: GASPAR CASSADÓ'S IBERIAN LEGACY

Thursday, September 7th

Faculty Club Grand Lounge

Event featuring chamber players from the Appalachian Chamber Music Festival and guest speaker Dr. H. Rosi Song (Durham University, UK.). This performance and lecture, which explores the life and work of Spanish Catalan cellist and composer Gaspar Cassadó (1897-1966) in conversation with that of other composers, is based on a research project that seeks to recover Cassadó's legacy while examining what could be identified or understood as a "Spanish sound" in 20th century classical music.
