

Call for papers

The 23rd Edition of the Annual Hispanic and Lusophone Studies Symposium

March 20th-21st, 2020, Columbus, Ohio

The Graduate Students in the Spanish and Portuguese Department at The Ohio State University invite graduate students, professors, and interested researchers to participate in the 23rd edition of the Annual Hispanic and Lusophone Studies Symposium, which will take place on March 20th-21st, 2020. On this occasion, we invite interested scholars to reflect and engage in a dialogue about any aspect of literatures and cultures in the Luso-Hispanic world. We aim to create a collaborative environment in which we can critically discuss issues and concerns, while establishing a dialogue between time, space, subjects, theories, and practices.

We welcome proposals for traditional papers, as well as other formats, including performance, creative writing, and video essay, among others. We accept proposals written in Spanish, Portuguese, and English.

Proposals should be sent by January 15th, 2020.

Keynote Speakers:
Guillermo Gómez-Peña, La Pocha Nostra
Dr. Cacilda Rêgo, Utah State University
