

Bolivia Global May

The Ohio State Global May study abroad program in Bolivia is designed to offer a unique cultural experience. Participants will study Andean cultures and literature, examine Bolivia's key historical moments, and explore contemporary social, political, economic, and cultural issues. This program is specifically designed for first and second year students of any major who are interested in learning about the global significance of Bolivia.

The program will begin in the tropical city of Santa Cruz, then travel to Cochabamba and La Paz to get exposure to both urban and rural considerations.
